

R·I·T news & event

Current Issue | Issue Dates & Deadlines | University News | Archives

Top News More News Newsmakers Photos

Jan 1997 Janura

Isaac Jordan scholarships to promote diversity

The Isaac L. Jordan Sr. Fund, initiated by RIT's Commission for Promoting Pluralism, is being established to promote diversity on campus and beyond.

Isaac L. Jordan
Sr.

The fund will provide two scholarships each year to RIT students. One scholarship will be awarded to an incoming freshman whose writing skills and knowledge about diversity will be recognized. The scholarship will be awarded to a returning student who has demonstrated an understanding of diversity through overt contributions in this area. A third award will be given to a faculty or member who has made significant contributions to enhance pluralism at RIT.

As the first chairperson of the Commission for Promoting Pluralism, Isaac L. Jordan Sr. strove to create a RIT community one which celebrates differences in race, religion, culture and lifestyle. Tragically, he passed away in February of 1994, but his memory will live on at RIT through the Isaac L. Jordan Sr. Fund. A goal of $25,000 has been set for the fund. Send contributions, made payable to "The Isaac L. Jordan Sr. Fund," to the attention of Vicki Dodds, Office of Development, RIT, 116 Lomb Memorial Drive, Rochester, NY 14623.

University News Services, 132 Lomb Memorial Dr., Bldg. 86 Rochester, NY 14623

© 2004 Rochester Institute of Technology. All Rights Reserved.

Issue Credits | Questions/Comments? | Terms of Use

Phone: 585-475-5064, Fax: 585-475-5097